Now you can use all services available on eService to manage your business applications. However, it is required to represent a Company to manage business in dealer license, type approval/import permit, numbering, majoriy of operating licences. You may join other Company being invited by its Administrator, or create your own Company Account.

3 NEW COMPANY ACCOUNT

3.1 Background information of Company Account

A Company Account will have at least one (1) person account and no limitation of adding more person accounts.

There are three (3) types of roles of Person Accounts under a Company Account.

- ✓ Employee. General employee of a company. Employee has a right to browse the company profile only.
- Representative: holds an extended right from the status of 'Employee' to browse Company profile and manage business on behalf of the company, which includes submission of the business applications, checking the status of the applications, managing payments and receipts, receiving notifications/alerts/reminders.
- ✓ Administrator: Holds an extended right from the 'Representative' to edit Company Profile including managing a list of related persons.

Note: the Person creates a Company Account becomes the first Company Account Administrator. When the Company Account validation is requested, AITI will check if you are the first Person Account holder and send you an invitation as an Administrator of the Company Account. You will need to confirm/accept the invitation to validate the Company Account.
